Dear Friends

As I write this letter, my first as your new Priest-in-Charge, I can hardly believe that the Christmas celebrations are just days away. A time of year when many will spend time with family and friends, telling stories and remembering family traditions and times past. Yet for others this will be the year they start to make new family traditions for the first time.

So, no matter how we celebrate, we are again given the opportunity to recall the ancient and familiar story, the one which contains the true meaning of Christmas no matter how shops and online shopping would have us think otherwise. The amazing, life changing story of how God came to live amongst us, in human form, through the birth of a baby to parents who enjoyed few if any of life's advantages - a family who lived a basic life in a remote town in Israel. Yet it is a story which has had, and still has, a profound effect on the world for over two millennia.

But unlike most stories this one doesn't need to be told in words. It can be told by actions, sending cards, giving gifts, maybe sharing Christmas lunch with a lonely neighbour, dare I say it, by coming to church to listen to the story and sing carols, even if this is your one and only visit since last Christmas.

Christmas is the opening chapter of a story about a loving gracious God who gave everything he could to show just how much he loves us. A gift without price, but one which we can say thank you for simply by living our lives ethically and gratefully, doing all we can to further his kingdom here on earth, in the here and the now.

So, I'd like to close this letter with some words from one of the most popular carols, one which has a verse always reserved only for Christmas Day.

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning,
Jesus, to thee be glory given,
Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing:
O come, let us adore him
Christ the Lord

May I wish you all a peaceful and blessed Christmas, and every blessing for 2015.

With love in Christ

Deirdre

Church Matters

Discussion Group

In the Discussion Group in November we had a great time discussing (and listening to the music for) some of our favourite hymns. We've got a lot of them!

Our next meeting will be on Wednesday 10th December when our topic is Chapter 1 of Luke's Gospel. We shall be meeting at 10.30 am at Little Barn, Northgates, Monewden.

Remembrance Sunday

We had a very uplifting service made extra interesting by the presence of some members of Armond Miles' family. We have also been given a very beautiful worked-iron and lacquered poppy in commemoration of the 100 years since 1914. It was made by Rob Swanscott, the blacksmith at Easton Farm Park.

Christmas Bazaar

Details about the bazaar are on a separate page and on the separate flyer.

Carols and Gift Service

Our traditional service will take place on Sunday 14th December at 6.30pm. If you wish to bring a wrapped gift for the children at FIND (Families in Need—see page 5 for more information about the charity) please bring it to the service. They would prefer to have the presents in gift bags and not wrapped so that they can distribute them appropriately. Mince pies and mulled wine will be served after the service.

Carol Singing

We shall be singing round the village on Monday 17th December and collecting for The Children's Society. Please meet at the village green at 6 pm. If you would particularly like us to come and sing at your house, please contact Jane W-E on 746667. →

COSMIC Nativity

At ten o'clock on Christmas Eve morning the COSMIC club will be holding their traditional nativity celebration. This has become one of the most popular events of the Christmas period and we would like it to be even bigger this year! There are more details elsewhere in the magazine.

Christmas Day

This year our service will be a celebration with carols at 10.00 am (not a communion service).

Benefice Services

The service on Sunday 7th December will be at Brandeston at 10 am and on 28th December at Campsea Ashe also at 10 am (when we celebrate St Stephen).

New Year bring-and-share lunch

This will be on Sunday 4th January at Hacheston Village Hall. It will be a great opportunity for all members of the benefice to get to know each other better.

This year the gifts from the service on 14th Dec will be given to this Ipswich based organisation—here's more about them

BEWARE!

We've had a couple of incidents recently of farm animals on the road - cows and pigs in neighbouring villages. The Safer Neighbourhood Team's advice is: 'If you see animals in the road, dial 101'. The Police will decide on the course of action, eg attending to block the road to prevent an incident as well as contacting the landowner. They advise that road users/walkers should not put themselves in danger trying to herd loose animals.

Easton Pre-School News

Children return to Easton Pre-School as College Students!

In Easton Pre-School's 40th year, it welcomes back Billy Brooks and Chloe Bailey who once attended as pre-schoolers and are now on placement as health and social care students from Suffolk New College. Their courses cover many aspects of health and social care, including early years.

Billy, 18, is on a shorter placement and is interested in being a paramedic. He described how much he enjoyed being with the children. Chloe, 16, wants to pursue a career as a midwife or children's nurse. She said it was good to see how children could be educated and kept safe. Chloe will be with Easton Pre-School once a week until Easter.

Angie Lee-Foster Chair of Easton Pre-School said:

"We welcome our links with Suffolk New College and know that student placements bring mutual benefit. In our 40th anniversary year it's a particular delight to have Billy and Chloe with us especially as they were once here as children."

If anyone attended Easton Playgroup/Easton Pre-School Group/Easton Pre-School in the past and would be willing to give us information about who you are and what you are doing now, then please contact us by email -

Our Academy launch day was a big success. The children from all three schools met and took part in sporting activities, while the very young children participated in art and crafts and were treated to a very good children's entertainer. They enjoyed meeting people and making new friends. A quote from a child from Leiston Primary said, 'I like your school Mrs Payne, it's like a big house'! She definitely wants to visit us again soon. Over the coming months staff will be meeting and planning together, updating policies and generally sharing good practice.

The children in Pirate class and Comet class were lucky enough to have a visit from the police to enrich a topic on 'people who help us'. Our apologies to residents if you heard the police sirens and wondered what was going on! The policeman very kindly asked the children if they would like to have a go at pressing buttons. Oops! A very informative visit nonetheless.

The children took part in 'Children in Need' and came dressed to school as their own made up super hero and raised money for this worthy cause.

Children and staff took part in a Remembrance Service at school. A pupil read beautifully the poem 'Flanders Fields' by John McCrae, and the youngest children spread poppy seeds over the wildlife garden. Then, after listening to a 'live performance' of the Last Post, we held a two minutes' silence and encouraged the children to reflect during this time. This is available to view on our Website.

With Christmas fast approaching its always a busy time in school. Our Christmas Fayre is to be held in school on Sunday 7th December from 2-4pm. It would be lovely to see you there and you are warmly invited to join us. The school choir will be starting things off just before 2pm. We have a Christmas café, raffles, tombolas, children's games, face painting. We also have some stalls for trades, so please come along and join in the fun. I have heard that Father Christmas may even be popping by to pay us a visit!

Rehearsals have started for the school Christmas performance which this year is titled 'The apprentice'. Once again we will be using Wickham Market school hall so that we can invite every child's whole family. Busy but fun times!

The children and staff would like to take this opportunity to wish the residents of Easton a very happy Christmas and a prosperous new year!

Mrs Diane Payne, Pirate class teacher

NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH

Ebola Virus Scam

Security researchers are warning computer users to beware of Ebola virus scams. With the Ebola Virus Disease (EVD) capturing headlines worldwide, many people are fascinated by the ongoing epidemic.

Cybercriminals are targeting users with malicious attacks, using news of the Ebola virus to drive their malware and phishing campaigns. Once installed, malware can steal passwords and banking details, log your keystrokes, spam your contact list, and other devious deeds.

We've provided information below on two of the most common attacks currently circulating.

- Presentation Attachment

Some computer users have been receiving emails claiming to be from major telecommunications services, with a detailed presentation about the Ebola virus as an attachment.

When users try to open EBOLA - PRESENTATION.pdf.zip they are infected by the Trojan.Blueso malware, which can be used to inject the W32.Spyrat malware into your web browser. This malware can log what you type, record from your webcam, take screenshots, delete files and folders, download files, and more.

- Chain Letter

Spurred on by talk about the promising Zmapp experimental drug, emails have been received claiming that the Ebola virus has been cured. The message insists you should forward it and its attachment, Backdoor.Breut, to your friends. This malware records your keystrokes and may download other dangerous files onto your computer.

We recommend that you exercise caution when clicking and downloading attachments from your emails. Cyber attacks can destroy your computer, take over your machine, cause malfunctions, and steal valuable information.

WOULD YOU LIKE A FREE OAK TREE?

Shirley and Colin Haysom (Lawsons, Fram Road) have an oak tree in need of a good home. There is no charge, but you would need to dig it up and transport it yourself (help available if required!). It's about 11 ft tall. Call Shirley or Colin on 747678 if you can give the oak a good home!

The Everlasting Turkey

On the first day of Christmas my true love said to me
I've bought a big fresh turkey and a proper Christmas tree.
 On the second day of Christmas much laughter could be heard
 As we tucked into our turkey – a most delicious bird.
On the third day of Christmas people came from just next door,
The turkey tasted just as good as it had done before.
 On the fourth day of Christmas came relations young and old
 We finished up the Christmas pud and had the turkey cold.
On the fifth day of Christmas, outside the snowflakes scurried,
But we were nice and warm inside, and had the turkey curried.
 On the sixth day of Christmas, the Christmas spirit died.
 The children fought and bickered – we had the turkey rissoles fried.
On the seventh day of Christmas my true love he did wince
When he sat down at table - and was offered turkey mince.
 On the eighth day of Christmas, the dog had run for shelter,
 For he'd seen our turkey pancakes and the glass of alka-seltzer.
On the ninth day of Christmas, by lunchtime dad was blotto,
He knew that bird was back again, this time as a risotto.
 On the tenth day of Christmas we were drinking home-made brew,
 Anything to help us face that steaming turkey stew.
On the eleventh day of Christmas our lovely tree was moulting,
And with chilli, soy and oyster sauce, the turkey was revolting.
 On the twelfth day of Christmas we had smiles back on our lips,
 The guests had gone, the turkey too – WE DINED ON FISH AND CHIPS!

Christmas Cards

Once again we have decided to be green and charitable this Christmas. Yes, no cards to you happy folk in Easton as we shall be giving the money to the Saint Elizabeth Hospice. So through the Parish Magazine we wish all our Easton chums a Merry Christmas and prosperity in the New Year.

Pam and Peter Bennett-King, Dot and Gill Blane, Christine and Don Burgoyne, Michael Coney, Paul Batley, Colin and Shirley Haysom, Emma and Will Johnston and girls, Brian and Jean Kendall, Clare and John Owen, Jane and Charles Pollock, Carol and John Rook, Jane Woodbury-Eggins

Easton Bells will ring again!

There will be regular ringing in Easton next year. The bells at All Saints, Wickham Market, will be undergoing a major overhaul next year and while they are out of action we intend to transfer our practice sessions to Easton.

The dates are not confirmed yet but it is likely to be from the end of January until the end of March/early April; we will be ringing on Monday evenings from 7.30 pm - 9.00 pm. Afterwards, we will, no doubt, retire to The White Horse. Any residents who would like to come along and be initiated in the ancient art would be most welcome or otherwise join us for a drink to find out what it's all about.

Dates will be confirmed as soon as possible.

Hope to see you there.

Derek Martin

EASTON & LETHERINGHAM VILLAGE HALL

We would like to wish all residents and user groups a very Merry Christmas.

Our annual Mince Pies and mulled wine coffee morning will be held on Saturday 13th December from 11.00-12:30. This is our opportunity to say thank you to all residents and user groups for their continued support and use of the hall by providing an opportunity to have a seasonal get together with friends and neighbours and enjoy a complimentary glass of mulled wine.

As we said last month, to celebrate our 50th year we will be giving half of all the money we raise from a number of events planned for 2015 to charity. We asked you to nominate charities you would like to be considered for the "public vote" at our "Mince Pies and Mulled Wine Coffee" Morning on the 13th December. The two Charities that have been nominated are:

HomeStart

HomeStart is a national family support charity originating in the armed forces but now there are branches all over the UK for non-service and service families. They support families, who must have at least one child under 5 and who are coping with a range of situations which for one reason or another isolate or limit their choices. This includes, multiple birth, disability, bereavement, English as a second language, mental illness, re-location, Volunteers work in group sessions when several families come together in a "mini-playgroup" type situation. The volunteers, working under a paid member of HomeStart staff, can engage with the families, help with socializing, encourage play and independence and help the family and the children to feel confident and happy with their situation, whatever it could be.

More information can be found at www.homestarteastsuffolk.org.uk.

Community First Responders

Community First Responders are volunteer paramedics who attend to local 999 call, when an ambulance is not immediately available. They attend patients who have had accidents, heart attacks, strokes, impaired breathing or falls. They're also able to treat children.

First Responders get their training and their equipment free from the East of England Ambulance Trust, but have to fund their own travelling and other costs themselves. They are most effective in rural locations like ours and have been called to incidents in the village in the past.

More information can be found at www.eastamb.nhs.uk/get-involved/community-first-responders
